NEWS RELEASE

City of Clermont's Red, White & Boom Returns

CLERMONT (June 4, 2021) – The City of Clermont's annual Fourth of July celebration returns.

Red, White & Boom from 7-10 p.m. Sun., July 4 at Waterfront Park, 300 3rd St.

"We're happy to bring back this popular patriotic event for our Clermont community, especially after a one-year hiatus due to COVID-19," Interim City Manager Susan Dauderis said.

The celebration kicks off at 7 p.m. at the Highlander Pavilion with opening remarks from Clermont Mayor

Tim Murry, the National Anthem, a presentation by the City of Clermont Honor Guard and an invocation.

This free, family-friendly evening includes over 15 food trucks, vendors, a live DJ and an aerialist show. Classic Independence Day treats like hot dogs and ice cream will be available for purchase throughout the night, as well as beer and wine.

Watch a spectacular 18-minute fireworks display over Lake Minneola starting at 9:15 p.m. This year, there is a new additional viewing area at Victory Pointe, 938 Victory Way. Bring your own chairs or blankets to enjoy the show.

Free parking is available in all public lots. There's still time to register to be a food vendor; download the application at www.ClermontFL.gov/events.
